LLOYD CHARLES PASCH

Remains Laid to Rest Saturday Afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Pasch and family arrived here Friday afternoon, bringing the remains of their son, Lloyd, who had died at Breckenridge, Minn., a few days previous.

Lloyd was born in Groton, February 11, 1906. Was baptized by the Rev. J. S. Butt February 23, 1906. He lived in Groton until 1911, when the family moved to Doran, Minn. He was a student of the Doran public schools and a regular attendant of the Presbyterian Sunday school. He was taken ill February 23 and taken to the hospital at Breckenridge and there underwent an operation on February 26.

Loving care and skill proved unavailing and he passed away March 4th, aged 13 years and 21 days. He is survived by his sorrowing parents, two brothers, four sisters and a grandmother. All the family were present except one brother, Irwin, who is in the navy on foreign duty.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, Saturday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. T. R. Taggart, and the body laid to rest beside his brother, Clarence, who preceded him in death in 1899.
